Catechism of the Catholic Church

334. Is it necessary to be celibate to receive the sacrament of Holy Orders?

It is always necessary to be celibate for the episcopacy. For the priesthood in the Latin Church men who are practicing Catholics and celibate are chosen, men who intend to continue to live a celibate life "for the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 19:12). In the Eastern Churches marriage is not permitted after one has been ordained. Married men can be ordained to the permanent diaconate.

Further reading: CCC 1579-1580, 1599

335. What are the effects of the sacrament of Holy Orders?

This sacrament yields a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit which configures the recipient to Christ in his triple office as Priest, Prophet, and King, according to the respective degrees of the sacrament. Ordination confers an indelible spiritual character and therefore cannot be repeated or conferred for a limited time.

Further reading: CCC 1581-1589

336. With what authority is the priestly ministry exercised?

Ordained priests in the exercise of their sacred ministry speak and act not on their own authority, nor even by mandate or delegation of the community, but rather in the Person of Christ the Head and in the name of the Church. Therefore, the ministerial priesthood differs essentially and not just in degree from the priesthood common to all the faithful for whose service Christ instituted it.

Staying Holy: A Summer Game Plan

by FAITH NOAH (Life Teen Blog)

4). Adapt and Keep it Real

Okay, let's be real. Steps 1-3 seem like a solid launching point, but...life happens. Maybe it's tough to enact the goals we set due to an unexpected change of plans, spending a lot of time with family, or a busier schedule than we thought. And...that's ok!

The hassles and trials of daily life can make our game plan tougher to follow, but that makes it an even greater act of love when we follow through. Yes, we may have to adapt to be reasonable, but adapting doesn't mean we're giving up on our plan. It means revising and remaining determined to not give up on our quest to holiness, no matter the obstacles. After all, God doesn't give up on us.

Central to this consistency is the idea that we make reasonable goals. If going to Mass every day will put a strain on our other obligations, it may not work in the summer game plan. It could soon be very easy to let this prayer then become a task or burden, an item to check off, instead of a goal we can both accomplish and grow from.

I remember one summer in which I couldn't make it to Mass during the week due to my work schedule. At first I tried to miss meals or meetings to make it work, but I couldn't keep it up long. I would walk by the Church and hunger for the Eucharist more than I ever had in my life. However, because of that lack, I learned to desire God more, and I picked up other prayer habits that helped me stay connected. God used my crazy schedule to speak to me in new, unexpected ways. And you can be sure He'll do the same for you!

Can't make it to the chapel? Pray on the go. Spending a lot of time with family? Turn that into a prayer! Love Christ through everything — ad majorem Dei gloriam — all for the greater glory of God.

YOUTH HUMOR FOR THIS WEEK

The 3rd grade Catechist & her class were on break when everyone saw a fire truck zoom past the school. Sitting in the front seat of the fire truck was a Dalmatian dog. The children began discussing the dog's duties.

"They use him to keep crowds back," said one youngster. "No," said another, "he's just for good luck."

Then Little Johnnie brought the argument to a close. "They use the dogs," he said firmly, "to find the fire hydrant!"

Father Marty's Corner

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith coordinates each year in each diocese a visit by a missionary. It is a concrete opportunity to remember that the Church is universal and constantly has an obligation to attend to mission lands. The United States of America was considered a missionary territory until June of 1908 when Pope Saint Pius X recognized that the Church in the United States was financially secure and able to generate its own vocations. Since then we have done a fine job of attending to our needs and extended our bounty to assist those in need in our own country and others throughout the world who are in desperate need.

We welcome this year the Apostles of Jesus. They are a Missionary Institute founded by two Comboni Missionaries in Uganda in 1968 for the purpose of the evangelization of Africa and the world. Your donation in the Missionary Cooperative Collection will assist the Apostles of Jesus in their good work.

Please note that their North American headquarters is located in our diocese in Northampton, PA.
We warmly welcome them to our parish!

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time Matt 13: 44-52

Jesus said to his disciples:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field,
which a person finds and hides again,
and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.
Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant
searching for fine pearls.
When he finds a pearl of great price,
he goes and sells all that he has and buys it.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea,
which collects fish of every kind.
When it is full they haul it ashore
and sit down to put what is good into buckets.
What is bad they throw away.
Thus it will be at the end of the age.
The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace,
where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?"

They answered, "Yes."

And he replied,

"Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

Did you know?

The son of Zebedee and Salome, James is styled "the Greater" to distinguish him from the Apostle James "the Less". He was the brother of John, the beloved disciple, and probably the elder of the two. St. James, whose Feast Day is July 25 and as Tradition has it, eventually became the first apostle who was martyred and is the patron Saint of Spain.

Question: Who was Saint Philip? Where do we find him in Sacred Scripture? When is his Feast Day?

Last week's Answer: We should ALL know this...but when is the Feast Day of our Patron?

The Feast of Saint Columbkil falls on June 9 in our Catholic Calendar of the saints. Thus, this past year on June 9th, our parish of Saint Columbkil celebrated it's 96 birthday as we were founded in 1921! Less than 4 years until we are 100!!!!
Can't wait for that party!!

And you can look all of this up!
