Apologetics-Defending the Faith

A Bible Christian said, "I've never understood why Catholics claim that Mary was a virgin her entire life. The Bible says that Jesus had brothers. Matthew 13:55 settles the matter for me: 'Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And are not his brethren James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? And are not all his sisters with us?'"

In answering any biblical objection to the faith, step number one is putting the other at ease by agreeing that if a teaching contradicts Scripture, the teaching must be wrong.

Next, examine the biblical evidence. In the case of Mary's perpetual virginity, the key to explaining Matthew 13:55 is understanding the Greek word for "brethren" (adelphoi) and its feminine counterpart (adelphae). If the Greek words used in this passage connote only siblings, then the Catholic dogma of Mary's perpetual virginity is false.

However, the word adelphoi has a much broader meaning. It may refer to male relatives that one is not a descendant of and that are not descendant from one (such as a blood brother, step-brother, nephew, uncle, cousin, etc.) or non-relatives such as neighbors, fellow workers, co-religionists, and friends.

Because of this broad usage, we can be sure that the 120 "brothers" in Acts 1:15 did not have the same mother. Neither did Lot and his uncle Abraham, who were called "brothers" (Gen. 11:26-28, 29:15).

The reason relatives were called brothers or sisters was because in Hebrew, there was no word for cousin, nephew, or uncle. So the person was referred to as simply a "brother." Linguistically, this was far easier than calling the person the son of a mother's sister. Since the New Testament was written in a dialect of Greek that was heavily influenced by the Semitic culture, many of the Hebrew idioms (like "brother" having multiple meanings) intrude into the Greek text. So, the fact that Jesus had adelphoi does not mean that Mary had other children.

Christmas Crèche Memorial

An Opportunity to Perpetually Remember a Loved One

A MESSAGE FROM FR. MARTY

You may have noticed that last year we were able to acquire a Nativity Set made by the Dolfi Studio in Italy. It was in our diocesan warehouse where sacred objects are stored after parishes are closed.

This Nativity set had been in Saint Joseph Church in Girardville, PA. I would like to memorialize the set (or figures in groups or individually).

We will have a plaque made and placed near the Nativity each Christmas season. Since Christmas is coming quickly if anyone is interested in this loving memorial, please let me know as soon as possible. It is a very fitting way to remember our loved ones.

I know that personally, every time I take the ciboria out of the tabernacle, I am comforted knowing that my family donated that in honor of my father. His name is inscribed on the lid. He is still close and remembered on the altar.
Call Lisa at Parish Office for details!

Letters to God: 5 Reasons to keep a journal

by JURELL SISON

#4 Allow God to become a Real Friend!

Have you ever noticed how difficult it is to chat with a stranger? Even when you have good intentions and genuinely want to start a conversation, sometimes there is a natural awkwardness that comes with the task.

Every now and then, I experience this in my prayer. When I pray, I go through the usual and polite routines (sign of the cross, thank you for..., protect this person, etc...) but then I find myself at a loss for anything meaningful to say. There are times when I go so long without praying that God becomes a stranger to me.

Over the years, I've discovered that keeping a consistent journal creates a history of your relationship. Think about this. The best conversations I have are with my best friends and it's because we have a history of things to chat about. When I see them I can't help but ask them how their week was, how their job interview went or how their vacation was. There is a certain ease to the friendship because of the countless memories we share together. My best friendships require a continual act of checking up on each other.

Praise and Worship opportunity

There is a Praise and Worship opportunity called iWorship at Holy Guardian Angels Parish in Reading, PA. "Gathering around our Eucharistic Lord in Adoration to pray with other young people in our area. Worship led by talented musicians who draw young people deeper into the Eucharist. God answers, “Like one second.”

Father Marty's Corner by Deacon Joe Petruskus

The fourth week of Advent is a time of waiting and wonder. Watching young children as they wait anxiously for Christmas morning is a good reminder for all of us on how we should approach the coming of Jesus in our lives. A season like none other in the year when we open our hearts to our family and friends, but also to those on the fringes of our society.

Food banks and pantries are filled waiting to be distributed to those in most need. Toys and gifts to those less fortunate are generously given. More time is spent with those who are alone at this time of the year than any other. The wonder of the season is upon us.

Where does this graciousness come from? The God of love has imprinted in each of us the desire to love. And this season that we celebrate the first coming of the Son of God, the Word incarnate, is the season that we experience true joy in family and friends and the desire to reach out to others in need.

One of the best examples of selfless giving is Joseph. No words are spoken by Joseph in sacred scripture. But in a single sentence, we learn that Joseph was a righteous man. He is the ultimate example of what a truly good man is. He was a carpenter. He knew hard work. He knew what it meant to support a family. He knew what it meant to sacrifice. He was compassionate and he put all his trust in God. What an example for all of us. Emmanuel... God is with us. Let the spirit of God inspire us to make this truly a season of wonder and grace for all his sons and daughters.

Second Sunday of Advent

Gospel of Matthew 1: 18-24

This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about.

When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit.

Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet:

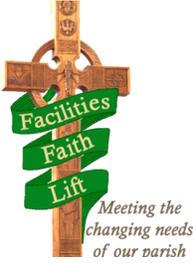

Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means "God is with us."

When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home.

What does Scripture say about Stewardship?

As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace.

—1 Peter 4:10

You have been told, O man, what is good, and what the Lord requires of you: Only to do the right and to love goodness, and to walk humbly with your God.

—Micah 6:8

But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things will be given you besides.

—Matthew 6:33

A Prayer for Those Growing Old

Lord, You know that I am growing older.
Keep me from becoming talkative and possessed with the idea that I must express myself on every subject.
Release me from the craving to straighten out everyone's affairs.
Keep me from the recital of endless detail.
Give me wings to get to the point.
Seal my lips when I am inclined to tell of my aches and pains. They are increasing with the years and my love to speak of them grows sweeter as time goes by.
Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally
I may be wrong.
Make me thoughtful but not nose;,
helpful but not bossy.
With my vast store of wisdom and experience it does seem a pity not to use it all. But You know,
Lord, that I want a few friends at the end. Amen!

Did you know?

Traditionally the view developed that the Three Kings who visited the baby Jesus were Babylonians, Persians, or Jews and from Yemen as the kings of Yemen then were Jews, a view held for example by St. John Chrysostom. There is also an Armenian tradition identifying the "Magi of Bethlehem" as Balthasar of Arabia, Melchior of Persia, and Gaspar of India.
You can look it up!

QUESTION? Who in Church History established the Season of Advent?

Last Week's Answer: Who does the Church recognize as the First Martyr? When is their feast day? The answer is: St. Stephen, the First Martyr. His feast day is December 26th.

Widows & Widowers Support Group

The next "REACH OUT" session will be in January of 2017. Dates to be announced. All are welcome. We ask for prayers for the families who are searching for the meaning of the Holidays without their loved ones. All come to recognize that Grief has a voice and when it is your voice, what you are hearing is the worst grief of all. The support of those who understand is most needed. The Reach Out sessions can help sort out and validate these complicated issues.
For more information and for anyone who has suffered a loss of any one close to them, please call Dn. Mike Boyle at 484-336-9849.

Respect Life Ministry

New to the parish and searching for something to be involved with...Respect Life Ministry is a great place to be. This Ministry is part of the Human Concerns Committee but extends beyond it.
